

BRAVISSIMO!

Landing her first show at the prestigious Jehangir Art Gallery is Shetal Dewan, who converted the space into a contemplative realm with a collection of paintings titled From the Formless to the Form, where each abstract work was inspired by ancient yantras. The daughter of an artist-mother, she honed her skills first at home and then earned a degree in Fine Art at the College of Art, New Delhi. To view her month-long online show, being hosted by art curator Shivani Virani, visit www.artistree.biz from 2nd May till 2nd June.
